

REALTORS® are required by the National Association of REALTORS® (NAR) to complete ethics training within a four-year cycle. For the current cycle, training must be completed between 2013-2016.

If you last completed your ethics training prior to 2013: You MUST select an option below and complete this requirement prior to Dec. 31, 2016.

If you need to check your last ethics training date: Visit www.realtor.org, sign in to manage account, and view education records. For sign in assistance, contact NAR at 1-800-874-6500. You will need your NRDS ID.

SELECT YOUR OPTION

#1 CLASSROOM

Register for a class with Wade Gaddy via the Association website: www.msar.org. You will need your NRDS ID as your username and your last name as your password to login accordingly.

Time: 9:00 A.M.
Orientation for New Members Ethics Class:
 10:00 A.M.—1:00 P.M.
Fee: $15 advance registration or $25 walk-in

#2 IN OFFICE

Great opportunity for Managing Brokers!
 Arrange to have an instructor from the Metro South Association school (MSAR REI) come to your office to conduct the class for your agents. Fees apply, send an email request for further details.

msar3020@gmail.com

#3 ON-LINE

Two Options for Seasonal Members only (Not available for New members of Metro South):
 Current Existing Member Course (No CE, $0) or NEW: Continuing Education Option (3 CE, $29.95)

VIEW DETAILS:
www.realtor.org/code-of-ethics

Non-compliance will result in suspension of membership:
 Suspension of REALTOR® membership results in suspension of “all Board/Association-provided rights, privileges and services”. This refers only to rights, privileges, and services that are available to REALTORS® as a result of their being REALTORS®.